We're back on schedule with a full week of school. On Sunday the second grade will attend the 9:30 Mass.

We are having our first Open House on Monday at 9:30 for new families considering registration for September. No appointment is necessary. A continental breakfast will be provided for while we display a power point presentation. Time will be allotted for questions and then guided tours of the school will be arranged. Come join us and see what we're all about!

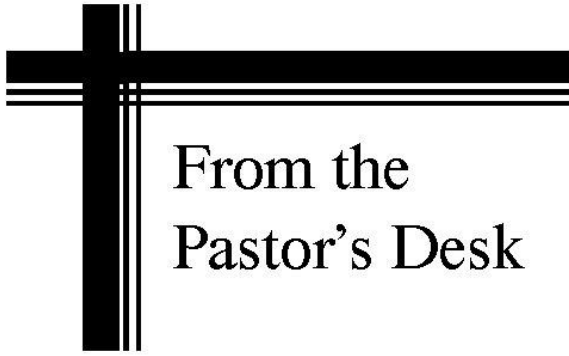

It's that time of year again! World's Finest Chocolate sales begin! It's hard to resist those yummy bars.

Grades 6, 7 and 8 will venture to Ally Pond Environmental Center on Tuesday. The classes will observe endangered species and explore a marshland ecosystem.

Olympic Days will take place on Thursday and Friday. This is a fundraiser that all the students enjoy. They compete in a variety of activities to earn points. They are sponsored by family and friends and earn money for the school based on the number of points they earn.

Just before Christmas vacation, several of our students were awarded scholarships from the Tri State Italian American Congress. They attended an awards ceremony held at St. James Basilica Cathedral in Brooklyn. Bishop DiMarzio led the prayer service and presented the students with certificates. He even spoke to our students just prior to the ceremony as they were sitting front and center. At the end, our students were invited up to the altar for photos with Bishop DiMarzio and members of the Tri State Italian Congress. Congratulations to the following students:

Christina Scaturro
Ava Pullara
Joseph Pullara
Sophia Pullara
Anthony Scaturro
Calogero Scaturro
Isabella Scaturro
