HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY TO ALL MOTHERS!

Tuesday will be our last Cake Sale of the year. It will take place during lunch.

Our last Home School meeting of the year takes place on Monday, May 13 at 7:30. The meeting kicks off with the school band's spring concert. We will install our new Home School Officers and bid adieu to Mr. Rabold. Mrs. Larsen will be stepping down as Fundraising Director, however, she still will be involved with our school for another year. Other information as fundraising updates and end of the year activities will be discussed. At least one parent from each family should make every effort to attend these meetings and show your support for our Home School Association.

On Wednesday, our Kindergarten will take a trip to the Young Chef's Academy. There they will learn how to make pretzels. This is always a fun trip for the youngsters especially since they get to sample what they make.

Dress Down Day will take place on Thursday.

Friday is our first Yankee Night. The Yankee organization has worked with the Diocese to plan a Catholic Schools Night at the stadium just as we've been having with the Mets. Let's hope this becomes an annual event so our Yankee fans can help the Yankees support Catholic education.
