FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

MS. JOANNE GANGI

Daylight Savings Time ends today. Have you turned your clocks back? Our days will be getting shorter now; a sure sign that winter's not far behind. Boo hoo!

This morning our second graders will attend the 9:30 Mass. On Wednesday, there will be a meeting for all second grade parents in the church at 7:30. The topic of this session will be Reconciliation.

Beginning Monday our Winter Uniform Regulations go into effect. Be sure to consult the School Calendar or website for more information on appropriate attire.

Tuesday is Election Day and school will be open.

First Friday Mass this month will be hosted by the third grade. As is our custom, the third graders' theme will encompass the saints they have been studying. Some of the students will dress as a particular saint and others will share information they have learned about a saint they chose. All are invited to join us for the 8:30 Mass.

Following the Mass we will acknowledge November birthdays and applaud our Students of the Month for October.

Friday evening Holiday Sweeps comes to Sacred Heart School. Do you have your tickets for this event? It is usually a sellout event. So don't get shut out. Join with friends for a fun evening and lots of opportunities to go home a winner. Tickets are still available for purchase. Contact the school for more information.

The eighth graders are taking the TACHS exam on Saturday. This exam will determine which Catholic High Schools they will be accepted to. Please keep our students in your prayers.

Our Robotics Club has begun meeting after school on Mondays and we've welcomed some new students to the team. This year's challenge is entitled "Trash Trek". Right now we are building the obstacles for our board, next comes building and programming the robot. The final piece is a research project that the team presents to the judges. The Qualifying Competition is usually held in January. Thank you to the parents who help facilitate this program, M/M Mezik and Mr. Huber.

This week, rehearsals begin for "Cinderella" on Monday afternoons. This program is moderated by Mrs. McPhillips and Mrs. Lawlor.

Also Chess starts up on Tuesday under the direction of Mrs. Sally and Mr. Snow. This club is for beginners as well as seasoned players.
