FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK MS. JOANNE GANGI

Today marks the end of our 75th Anniversary celebration. All are invited to a Pancake Breakfast hosted by the Kiwanis Club of Glendale in the school basement.

As we near the school performance of "Cinderella", the students have been rehearsing in front of small audiences. On Tuesday morning, the student body will be treated to a dress rehearsal of "Cinderella". Tickets are still on sale for the show on Saturday evening. Call the school at 718-456-6636 for more information.

Next weekend is jam packed with a flurry of activity at Sacred Heart School. There's something for everyone. Consider joining us for one or all the events. Call the school for more information. Friday evening is Paint Nite for adults. Come home with a work of art that you created yourself. Saturday morning our 8th grade is hosting a Car Wash to raise money to offset the cost of their senior trip. Saturday evening is "Cinderella". And on Sunday, May 1st, is the Mother/Daughter Tea.

Last week we held our Oratorical Contest. The students were superb in their presentations. Mere points separated the students when the scores were tallied. We congratulate all of our 7th and 8th grade participants and congratulations to our winner, Elana Caceres and first runner up, Kimberly Vineski. Elana will represent our school in the Diocesan competition in May.
