MS. JOANNE GANGI

Today Sacred Heart Catholic Academy congratulates two graduates of Sacred Heart School. John Federico and Steven Hansen have attained the honor of Eagle Scout and will have a ceremony and reception at the school. They have been dedicated Scouts for many years and have each completed community projects as part of their preparation for this wonderful achievement.

All of our special programs are up and running. Our students in Pre-K through grade eight attend technology, library and gym classes. Art class is taught to students in grades Kindergarten-grade 8. Grades 6-8 extend their Math skills in Math Technology class. Presently the students in grades 3-8 are studying music appreciation and the third and fourth graders are learning to play the recorder. In the winter Grades Pre-K-4 will have an opportunity to study music appreciation. Grades 6-8 include Health classes in their weekly schedule and seventh and eighth grade is introduced to public speaking and the art of debate.

Our annual Yankee Candle Sale begins on Monday. Many different items will be available for purchase. They make great gifts for the holidays!

There will be a Class Coordinator meeting at 8:30 on Tuesday morning. Previously selected parents will discuss plans for the coming year.

Monsignor McClancy High School representatives will visit our students in the 7th and 8th grade on Wednesday. The representatives will present information about their school. Interested students should attend an Open House.

Wednesday evening there will be a Catholic High School Information Night at St. John's University. This event allows students in the seventh and eighth grades to find out information about prospective schools all in one place.

Fr. Fullum, Sister Margaret and Sandy Hutter wish to thank everyone for making their day so special. Your cards, prayers and gifts were greatly appreciated.

Please continue to pray for all of us. Again Thank You!
