BEST WISHES FOR A HAPPY & HEALTHY NEW YEAR!

I hope that your holidays were enjoyable and now we're ready to pick up where we left off. Classes resume on Tuesday, January 3, 2017. The week starts off slowly as we get back into the swing of things.

The Chess Club and Band will meet on Tuesday. This week begins Variety Show rehearsals as well.

Our students in grades 1 through 8 will attend First Friday Mass. Following the Mass, January birthdays will be announced and Student of the Month for December will be awarded. In addition, certificates will be distributed to the students who have achieved Honor Roll status for the first trimester in grades 5 through 8. At the end of each trimester the Peacemaker Award is given to one student in every grade who demonstrates Christian values.

Believe it or not, we have already begun planning for registration in grades Nursery through seventh for September 2017. On Monday, January 9th, we will hold our first Open House at 9:30 am. At this Open House, a Power Point Presentation will be shown. There will be an opportunity for questions and time will allow for classroom visits. Light refreshments will be served. All parents interested in providing a solid, Catholic education for their children should make every effort to join us.

On behalf of Sacred Heart Catholic Academy, I would like to say thank you to Mr. Michael Agate for sharing his talents with us. Mr. Agate built two beautiful book shelves that now stand inside the front entrance of our building. These shelves hold the multitude of trophies and plaques that have been awarded to our students. In addition, he's working on a corner shelf that will hold an angel statue that the faculty purchased in memory of Mrs. Maryann Klimas, our previous school secretary who touched the lives of many who entered our doors.

The first marking period has ended for the high schools and I am pleased to congratulate our alumni who have achieved Honor Roll status.
