SCHOOL NEWS

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK
MS. JOANNE GANGI

I can't believe we begin the month of May this week!

During the month of April our third graders have immersed themselves in Poetry Month. On Monday they will celebrate their poetic accomplishments with a Poetry Tea. They have invited their parents to listen to their presentations of original poems. Light refreshments will be served.

Our Nature's Vision fundraiser comes to an end on Monday.

State Testing continues!

We will administer the Math Test for grades 4, 6 and 8 on Tuesday and Wednesday. It is important for students to be present on those days. Students can best prepare for these tests by getting a good night's sleep before each test and eating a healthy breakfast each morning.

The production of Willy Wonka performed by our Drama Club was a huge success. Our students and Mrs. McPhillips and Mrs. Lawlor met every Monday since September to prepare. To celebrate their triumph, they will have a Pizza Party at 1:00 on Wednesday.

On Thursday we will have our Oratorical Contest at 9:00. Mr. Seely has been working with several students in grades 6, 7 and 8 to prepare for this event. The students have memorized famous speeches that they will present to three judges. The winner will go on to represent our school at the Diocesan Oratorical contest in June.

The Wild Side Zoo visits PreK for All on Thursday. They will bring several animals for the children to learn about and interact with. This always proves to be a fun day for our four year olds.

Our usual First Friday Mass will be hosted by grade 1. Following the Mass, May birthdays will be announced and Student of the Month certificates for April will be awarded.

A Family Picnic will take place on Friday evening. All are invited to attend. There will be a great BBQ and fun activities for the children. For more information or to order tickets, call the academy office at 718-456-6636.

We congratulate our alumni from The Mary Louis Academy who achieved Honor Roll status for the second marking period. They are:

Elana Caceres, Alyssa Cingilio, Kayla Osorio, Antonella Ramos, Stephanie Spariosu, Kimberly Vineski
