in the Church Basement.

The Parish Pastoral Council supports the Pastor in the development of a vital Christian community.

Faith Corner

Families will soon be gathering around the table to celebrate Thanksgiving. Sometimes there is a moment of shyness or awkwardness when someone is asked to lead the blessing before the meal. This simple blessing found in a shopping catalog may help family members express their gratitude.
Pass it on!

*Bless the food before us,
The Family beside us,
And the love between us.
Amen*

SCHOOL NEWS

It's Hospitality Sunday once again! This week the third grade is invited to join together in celebration at the 9:30am Mass.

This is a short week for us, but the building is abuzz with holiday merriment.

Our students have been busy decorating boxes that will be used for the parish Thanksgiving Mass at 7:30 on Wednesday evening. Everyone is invited to celebrate at the mass. Non-perishable foods may be brought to the church and placed in those boxes.

Many classes will be celebrating Thanksgiving with their classmates this week. Some will be enjoying chicken nuggets, while others will be baking muffins and churning butter.

School will be closed on Thursday and Friday this week.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL!

On this holiday we give thanks for all that God has given us. We are truly blessed. We also pray for those less fortunate that God will provide.
