Father's Day

On July 5, 1908, a West Virginia church sponsored the nation's first event explicitly in honor of fathers in the form of a Sunday sermon to memorialize the 362 members who had died in the previous December's explosion at the Fairmount Coal Company mines. The next year, a Spokane, Washington woman named Sonora Smart Dodd, one of six children raised by a widower tried to establish an official equivalent to Mother's Day for fathers. She went to local churches, the YMCA, shopkeepers and government officials to gather support for her idea and she was successful. Washington State celebrated the nation's first statewide Fathers' Day on June 19, 1910. When World War II began, advertisers argued that celebrating Fathers' Day was a way to honor American troops. By the end of the war, Fathers' Day may not have been a federal holiday, but it was a national institution. It wasn't until 1972 that President Nixon signed a proclamation making Fathers' Day a federal holiday at last! Some Latin and European countries celebrate Fathers' Day on March 19th, the feast of St. Joseph. Joseph is the model of fatherhood. His faith and obedience to God inspired his devotion for his family.

On Fathers' Day let us be mindful of the unique role that fathers, grandfathers, uncles, godfathers, etc. play in the lives of children and in the world and let us thank God for St. Joseph who led by example.
