The U.S. Census Bureau continues to carefully monitor the coronavirus (Covid-19) situation and follows the guidance of federal, state, and local health authorities. Right now the easiest way to make sure residents are counted is through self-response online, by phone, or by mail. Emergencies like the COVID-19 pandemic are precisely why our government needs accurate census data. We must all do our part by making sure we self-respond and encourage others in our networks to do so as well. Residents can self-respond to the census on-line at www.my2020census.gov or speak to a Census worker live by dialing:

844-330-2020 for English

844-468-2020 for Spanish

844-391-2020 Mandarin or 844-398-2020 Cantonese

844-479-2020 Polish

For additional language assistance, please visit

<https://2020census.gov/en/languages>.

Do your part. Stay home. Get counted.

MINISTERS OF HOSPITALITY

The role of usher at Mass is very important. It has evolved over the years from just seating people and taking up the collection to include welcoming the community into our common house of worship, God's house. Ministers of Hospitality (as they are now called) also assist with keeping us safe while we are here. In recent months and years the numbers have dwindled for many reasons. We need ushers at most Masses on the weekends. It is a wonderful way to assist the parish community and meet some new friends. If you can help at any Mass or even the one you regularly attend please leave a message for Deacon Peter at the rectory.

ASSUMPTION
of the blessed virgin Mary

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING

Thus says the LORD:
Observe what is right, do what is just;
for my salvation is about to come,
my justice, about to be revealed. (Is 56:1)

PSALM

O God, let all the nations praise you! (Ps 67)

SECOND READING

Just as you once disobeyed God
but have now received mercy
because of their disobedience,
so they have now disobeyed in order that,
by virtue of the mercy shown to you,
they too may now receive mercy. (Rom 11:30-31)

GOSPEL

Jesus said to her in reply,
"O woman, great is your faith!
Let it be done for you as you wish."
And the woman's daughter was healed
from that hour. (Mt 15:28)

GOD FIXES WHAT IS BROKEN

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

We are hardwired for wholeness and crave it. When something is broken, we want it fixed. If a part of our body is not working properly, we want it healed. How often do we find ourselves saying, "I'm tired of struggling with this cold, I can't wait for my surgery to heal, or I want my treatments to make me better." Wholeness and healing restore our relationships and make us free to love as we desire. We know very well how our limitations, imperfections, and brokenness really limit us. They can easily prevent us from being and doing what we want to do.

Our physical and emotional wounds and maladies are easier to identify. If my back hurts, I feel it and know what part of my body needs attention. If I am feeling intense anger, I can identify the emotion and take necessary steps to uncover its cause. Being persistent often brings greater and quicker results. But will pursuing and even achieving our physical and emotional healings really be enough? We forget that there is a deeper healing that we seek and desperately need. As we look around at humanity, there are some physical and emotional wounds and scars that cannot be made whole. They are limitations that must remain and, for one reason or another, cannot be rectified. Does this mean that the wholeness and healing that my being longs for is not possible for me? Must I settle with less than what God promises?

The answer is no. Ultimately, there is a desire that goes deeper than the physical and emotional. It is a desire that resides in our soul. What we really seek and thirst for is healing and wholeness for our soul. Inner strength, conviction, focus, grounding, love, hope, faith, courage, determination, peace, and connectedness are all words that center us on eternity. They direct us to a presence we discover in our core, which is none other than the presence of God. In God, we are healed. When we are persistent in reaching out to and establishing our relationship with God, real healing and wholeness begin to happen.

There are some limitations and some of our brokenness with which we may simply have to live. This does not mean that we have to abandon our journey to wholeness and healing. If we have done our inner soul work, we have worked toward and acquired what and who we ultimately need and desire.
