RCIA—Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Do you know someone interested in becoming a Catholic or completing their sacraments? Do you know someone who is interested in coming back to Church after having been away for years? Do you know someone who has been Baptized but never received First Communion or Confirmation and is looking to receive those Sacraments?

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith or talking with someone about their questions or concerns about coming back to Church—we can help! The RCIA program can help answer your/their questions.

There is no obligation, except the opportunity to talk to someone about your concerns.

Contact Richie Hutter in Sacred Heart's RCIA program by calling 917-836-7514 or leave your contact information with the Faith Formation Office at 718-386-5616.

PATHWAY TO PRAYER

All parishioners are invited to consider donating a brick to our "Pathway to Prayer" in front of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Statue, in the Sacred Heart Prayer Garden. A brick can be in memory or honor of your special intentions. Each brick is carved with a personal sentiment. They are available for $250.00. You may order a brick by going to our website www.sacredheartrcglendale.org and clicking on the "order brick" link.

MINISTERS OF HOSPITALITY

The role of usher at Mass is very important. It has evolved over the years from just seating people and taking up the collection to include welcoming the community into our common house of worship, God's house. Ministers of Hospitality (as they are now called) also assist with keeping us safe while we are here. In recent months and years the numbers have dwindled for many reasons. We need ushers at most Masses on the weekends. It is a wonderful way to assist the parish community and meet some new friends. If you can help at any Mass or even the one you regularly attend please leave a message for Deacon Peter at the rectory.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The only way to know God is to love God. Our minds will never fully grasp the mystery of God, but our hearts and souls can learn to love the mystery. Years ago, when life had a more innocent quality to it, we believed what we were told or witnessed, unless there was direct evidence otherwise. This was especially true if the information came from someone in authority. In a sense, we were a bit more gullible on one hand but also more trusting on the other. The latter is an admirable quality that sadly can be eroded when we realize we have been duped. With education and technological advances, we find ourselves more skeptical and less likely to too quickly accept and believe what we see and hear.

For all of the good that social media can do, it can also easily distort reality and truth. Photoshop and a myriad other technological truths can add to, fabricate, and make even the non-existent seem real. It is amazing. How far do we allow this obviously justifiable skepticism to take us? Questioning and doubting are healthy elements of any good relationship as long as we don't allow them to turn us away from a deeper experience of love and encounter. If we cannot get our minds around something or empirically justify or prove it, we tend to declare it a hoax, untrue, or unauthentic and walk away. The very same trust that can quickly be eroded is exactly what is essential for all of our relationships, especially our relationship with God. With all things and people that make a profound claim on us, we have to trust in the absence of knowledge. Full self-investment involves plunging completely into the unknown!

Simon Peter said to Jesus, "You are the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Peter came to this knowledge, which is not "head knowledge" because of the relationship he shared with Jesus and what God was able to reveal in and through that relationship. Peter simply "knew" because of love that this is who Jesus really is. The silent exchange of love between friends, and not an intellectual exercise of the mind, brought Peter to this place. When we stop and think about it, there are many things in life that we simply know but do not completely understand. When someone sacrifices their own well-being for another, it may not make intellectual sense when examined. But it makes a world of sense when it is carried out. The vastness of reality and an encounter with incomprehensible mystery all lead us to profound silence where we simply know something to be true. Have you trusted enough to allow your relationship with God to bring you to this place or are you still too skeptical?
