RCIA—Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

Do you know someone interested in becoming a Catholic or completing their sacraments? Do you know someone who is interested in coming back to Church after having been away for years? Do you know someone who has been Baptized but never received First Communion or Confirmation and is looking to receive those Sacraments?

If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith or talking with someone about their questions or concerns about coming back to Church—we can help! The RCIA program can help answer your/their questions.

There is no obligation, except the opportunity to talk to someone about your concerns.

Contact Richie Hutter in Sacred Heart's RCIA program by calling 917-836-7514 or leave your contact information with the Faith Formation Office at 718-386-5616.

MINISTERS OF HOSPITALITY

The role of usher at Mass is very important. It has evolved over the years from just seating people and taking up the collection to include welcoming the community into our common house of worship, God's house. Ministers of Hospitality (as they are now called) also assist with keeping us safe while we are here. In recent months and years the numbers have dwindled for many reasons. We need ushers at most Masses on the weekends. It is a wonderful way to assist the parish community and meet some new friends. If you can help at any Mass or even the one you regularly attend please leave a message for Deacon Peter at the rectory.

Since we are unable to have our Missalettes in the Church, you may want to purchase a daily companion that you can bring to Mass with you or use at home while you watch your favorite Mass channel. Below are a few options:

WORSHIP & MEDITATION

FIRST READING:

Whenever I speak, I must cry out,
violence and outrage is my message;
the word of the LORD has brought me
derision and reproach all the day.
(Jer 20:8)

PSALM:

My soul is thirsting for you,
O Lord my God. (Ps 63)

SECOND READING:

I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the
mercies of God,
to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice,
holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. (Rom 12:1)

GOSPEL:

Jesus said to his disciples,
"Whoever wishes to come after me
must deny himself,
take up his cross, and follow me."
(Mt 16:24)

Secular pursuits only bring a temporary amount of satisfaction and fulfillment. As much as we may think that achieving worldly success, economic security, personal well-being, and self-fulfillment are worthy goals to obtain, they all are dependent on external variables and can lead to emptiness. We are trained to be very pragmatic and productive. Unless we are able to check off all of the boxes or comply with specific measurable requirements, our value and worth becomes questionable. Corporations, educational institutions, systems, structures, and secular ideology rarely consider deeper, more spiritual, and human contributions a person can and needs to make.

To the secular mind, the wisdom and ideals of the Gospel are making less and less sense. Consider for a moment this question: "What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" While Jesus is asking this very challenging question to people who are considering his message, many in our world are in a quite different place. Whether we realize it, many folks are asking a much different question. Why would you not want to gain the whole world and secure your life? If you look at where a lot of folks are investing their time, energy, and resources, it becomes obvious where current priorities rest.

Modern day comforts and possibilities are backing us out of our relationship with God. The fire burning in every human heart is trying to find its satisfaction in the things that humans have created and not God. Being altruistic and offering compassion for those most in need becomes a political responsibility or responsible gesture. We realize that our hearts need to be centered on something and someone who calls us out of ourselves, but we struggle and battle with naming the source of that call. God places the desire to seek, find, and love Him in the core of every soul. We are not abandoned and left to fend for ourselves. But we can easily get confused. We know that when we extend ourselves to another self-sacrificially, we are doing what is just and right. We know that we can work through suffering and loss and come out better and more whole on the other side.

Our minds need to be renewed so that they can begin to understand that there is much more to who we are, and that faith plays a pivotal role in achieving our true and everlasting goals. It is when we see that it is only faith that can bring us to this heightened awareness of ourselves and God that it will begin to make sense. Then, we can put things in proper perspective and consider being a disciple.
