WHAT TO DO WITH OLD SACRAMENTALS

When your rosary breaks or your crucifix falls apart, what to do? What should be done with these holy objects?

Sacramentals are sacred signs and provide for us grace (spiritual help) through the intercession of the Church. They can be any number of religious items that have been blessed by a priest or deacon — a rosary, medal, scapular, crucifix, or even a candle.

Catholics are instructed to dispose of old sacramentals in a way that shows due reverence. All sacramentals can be either burned and buried or buried as they are in order to properly dispose of them. This type of disposal honors their sacred purpose and returns them to the earth in a dignified way. If a person is unable to do either, the sacramental may be dropped off at the rectory and someone on staff can take care of it.

By treating sacramentals with respect, we recognize & honor the heavenly blessing that was placed on the object.

Should you wish to dispose of palms blessed on Palm Sunday they should also be disposed of in the same way — you may bury them or burn them and spread the ashes outside.

SCHOOL NEWS

The students, faculty and staff of Sacred Heart Catholic Academy hope that everyone had a wonderful Christmas. Our outdoor Christmas Concert was a huge success. The songs, the lights, all the Christmas spirit.... definitely a memorable event. I am very proud of all our students. I want to extend a very special thank you to our music teacher, Mr. Fox. The performances were amazing.

SHCA is closed for the Christmas recess. Classes will resume on Monday, January 3, 2022. On behalf of the SHCA, we wish everyone a very healthy and happy new year.

Michael J. Callaghan, Principal
