SISTERS OF ST. DOMINIC
of Amityville, New York

Join the Sisters of St. Dominic at the Queen of the Rosary Motherhouse in Amityville on February 26, March 5, and March 12 at 2pm as we participate in the centuries-old tradition of following Christ on the pathway to his tomb and on to the Resurrection. We'll explore 5 stations each week ending with a reflection on the empty tomb. As the observance of Lent and Holy Week is both a historical remembrance of past events and a poignant realization of how Christ continues to suffer in the Body of his people and planet, these prayerful experiences prepared by Dominican Youth, Dominican Associates, and vowed members will offer the opportunity to deepen a complete lifestyle in the 21st century. Depending on the weather some of the stations may be outdoors so dress appropriately. We'll gather for coffee afterward. Registration: WMFT.reservations@gmail.com

*Faith
Formation
Corner*

We hope all of our students had a safe and enjoyable mid-winter break. We remind our Faith Formation students to keep working on their MCFD lessons! Our Grade/Level 8 students should be completing their MCFD coursework by March 1st.

Looking a little ahead, our Grade/Level 2 students will soon participate in their virtual Communion retreat on Saturday, March 4th. On Sunday, March 5th, Grade/Level 2 is invited to the 9:30 AM Mass followed by a meeting during which their 2nd proximate preparation project will be distributed. This important project will be used on the day of the children's First Reconciliation.

I would also like to invite all our students and their families to join with Sacred Heart parish in the Stations of the Cross held the Fridays during Lent at 7:00 PM in church. Additional information is found elsewhere in this bulletin. The Stations of the Cross are prayers that help us meditate on Jesus' Passion and sacrifice for us, and allows us to pray and share the journey with Jesus through the events of Good Friday. The Stations of the Cross are a wonderful way to prepare for Holy Week and Easter, personally, with our fellow parishioners, and most of all with our families.
