Faith Formation Corner

This past week has been a busy one at Sacred Heart! Last Saturday was our communion retreat for our Grade/Level 2 children (see images below). Children and parents enjoyed a morning of prayer, music and fellowship. Later in the afternoon, many of our Grade/Level 3 through 6 children joined us for confession.

The next day, saw Fr. Fred meeting with the adults and teens who are preparing for the upcoming sacraments. Fr. Fred is busy preparing these individuals to receive during our upcoming sacraments as well as at Pentecost and Corpus Christi!

This busy weekend was followed (on Tuesday evening) by practices for the Sacrament of Confirmation along with distribution of tickets, gowns and instructions for candidates and sponsors.

On Wednesday evening, our Faith Formation and Academy sacrament children participated in the Stations of the Cross led by Fr. Fred. This weekend, we welcome our Grade/Level 7, Grade/Level 8 and OCITeens to Reconciliation.

Lent is a penitential season, meaning that during Lent we are called to examine our lives and to try to live in greater conformity with our faith. We are asked to imitate Jesus in a greater way. We encourage everyone to go to the sacrament of Reconciliation during this Holy season leading up to Easter!

Did you know?... St. Heribert, Bishop, was a peaceful man but a firm disciplinarian. A holy man, who knew the value of money and divided his among the poor. He was a man of prayer in a time of drought, it was in answer to his prayers that a torrential rain fell, saving the harvest and delivering the people from famine." - St. Heribert's feast day is March 16. St. Heribert, pray for us!
