Palm Sunday – March 24

Palm Sunday is the sixth and last Sunday of Lent and the beginning of Holy Week. It marks the celebration of the solemn entry of Christ into Jerusalem. Palm Sunday is known as such because the faithful receive palm fronds which they use to reenact

Christ's arrival in Jerusalem.

In the Gospels, Jesus entered Jerusalem riding on a young donkey and to the lavish praise of the townspeople who threw clothes or possible palm or small branches, in front of Him as a sign of homage. Palm branches have long been widely recognized as a symbol of peace and victory. The use of a donkey instead of a horse is symbolic; it represents the humble arrival of someone in peace, as opposed to arriving on a steed in war.

During Palm Sunday Mass, palms are distributed which are then blessed. Because the palms are blessed, they may not be discarded as trash.

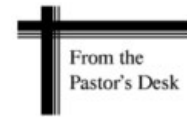

The colors of the Mass on Palm Sunday are red and white, symbolizing the redemption in blood that Christ paid for the world!

Holy Thursday - March 28

Wednesday of Holy Week marks the end of Lent. Holy Thursday begins the sacred Triduum—the holiest days of the Church year. Holy Thursday is the general title of Thursday of the Triduum but another name of Holy Thursday around the world is Maudy Thursday. The word maudy comes from the Latin word Mandatum (commandment) and is the first word of the Gospel acclamation: “I give you a new commandment; Love one another as I loved you.” John 13:34

Holy Thursday celebrates the institution of the Eucharist as the true body and blood of Jesus and the institution of the sacrament of the priesthood. At the Mass, the priest washes the feet of 12 people to symbolize Christ’s washing the feet of His 12 Apostles, our first bishops and priests. This Mass stresses the importance Jesus puts on the humility of service and the need for cleansing with water, a symbol of baptism. After Holy Thursday Mass, the altar is stripped and no Mass is celebrated in the Church until the Easter Vigil which celebrates and proclaims the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Good Friday - March 29

Good Friday is the English designation for the day of crucifixion and death of Jesus Christ. It is the most somber day of the Christian year. The origin of the term, Good, is not clear. The Catholic Encyclopedia indicates that it could have come from God’s Friday; others suggest it could have been based on a Medieval use of the word, good where it meant “holy.”

The principal Good Friday liturgical celebration is known as the celebration of the Lord’s Passion and includes:

- A Liturgy of the Word
- The Adoration of the Cross
- A Communion service using hosts already consecrated

Sacred Heart's Literacy was a success. In addition to various literacy activities, we had the pleasure of two authors visit the academy. The author, Maryann McMahon, of "Oh No! Don't Snow on Easter!" and Francis Bonnet, author of various books, met and autographed their books for the students.

Report cards and parent teacher conferences for the second marking period took place on Thursday. We ended the week with our Annual Variety Show. Students worked hard on putting on fantastic performances. Thank you to all the volunteers that help make this happen. Your generosity of time is greatly appreciated.

Faith Formation Corner

This past week involved our Faith Formation and Academy families continuing their Lenten practices as well as their preparations for the upcoming sacraments.

Our thanks to our Grade 3 children who came and walked the Stations of the Cross in our Church as Fr. Fred led us in prayer the evening of March 13th. We pray that our families will consider making the Lenten Parish Stations of the Cross a regular part of their Lenten preparation practices during the season of Lent. Stations of the Cross are held at 7 pm each Friday evening in the Church during Lent.

Please keep in your prayers our Confirmation candidates who will be confirmed on Saturday, March 23rd. Bishop DiMarzio will celebrate with them the Sacrament of Confirmation. Let us pray for these young men and women as they prepare to receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit that will help them to grow in their faith and to be faithful witnesses of the Gospel.

Our Sacred Heart of Jesus Church tradition of inviting the newly confirmed to Mass the following day as fully initiated members of the Church continues as we ask our newly confirmed to celebrate with the parish their full membership in the Roman Catholic Church by attending Mass on March 24th at 11:30 am.

"Hold firmly to the true words that I taught you, as the example for you to follow, and remain in the faith and love that are ours in union with Christ Jesus." -St. Paul's Letter to Timothy
