Everything we have is a gift from God.
And you share your giftedness with others.
Thank you!

Dear Parishioners,

It is with both sorrow and joy that we commemorate the death of Pope Francis the day following Easter Sunday. The sorrow is felt at the passing away of our shepherd of the universal Church who offered to all the world a great love for humanity and an undivided affection and fidelity for Love Itself. The joy is borne out of the opportunity to witness to his papacy and now to pray to God in thanksgiving for Pope Francis and that his soul will rest in peace.

These days of remembrance and transition in the Church recall the wonderful hymn we were taught to sing:

“Long live the Pope! His praises sound again and yet again.

His rule is over space and time; his throne the hearts of men. . . .

Then raise the chant, with heart and voice, in church and school and home:

Long live the Shepherd of the Flock! Long live the Pope of Rome!

Almighty Father, bless his work, protect him in his ways,

Receive his prayers, fulfill his hopes

And grant him length of days.”

Mary, Mother of the Church, pray for us.

HOLY DOOR

From a symbolic viewpoint, the Holy Door takes on a special significance: it is the most powerful sign of the Jubilee, since the ultimate aim of the pilgrim is to pass through it. The opening of the door by the Pope constitutes the official beginning of the Holy Year. Originally, there was only one door, at the Basilica of St. John Lateran, which is the cathedral of the Bishop of Rome. Later, to allow as many pilgrims as possible to take part in the Jubilee experience, the other Roman Basilicas also opened their own holy doors.

In crossing the threshold of the Holy Door, the pilgrim is reminded of the passage from chapter 10 of St John's gospel: "I am the door. If anyone enters by me, he will be saved and will go in and out and find pasture." Passing through the Holy Door expresses the decision to follow and be guided by Jesus, who is the Good Shepherd. The door is a passageway that ushers the pilgrim into the interior of a church. For the Christian community, a church is not only a sacred space, to be approached with respect, with appropriate behavior and dress code, but it is a symbol of the communion that binds every believer to Christ: it is a place of encounter and dialogue, of reconciliation and peace which awaits every pilgrim, the Church is essentially the place of the community of the faithful.

In Rome, this experience takes on a special significance because of the special links between the Eternal City and Saints Peter and Paul, the apostles who founded the Christian community in Rome and whose teachings and example are models for the universal Church. The tombs of Saints Peter and Paul are located in Rome, they were martyred here; and together with the catacombs, these sacred sites are places of continuous spiritual inspiration.

A WARM WELCOME

If you are new to our parish please feel free to introduce yourself to Father McBrien, Father Fullum or Deacon Peter after Mass today. We kindly invite you to come to the Rectory Office and register as a member of Sacred Heart Parish. Registration is important for all parishioners because then we are able to issue sponsor letters for Baptism, Confirmation and Matrimony. We can also give end of the year statements of your contributions to the church through regular use of the envelopes. We can also help you with letters of recommendation for employment, school, etc. Your registration will also help us with our parish census in knowing the number of Catholics in Glendale and surrounding areas. Thank you and welcome!

This Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday, the Octave Day of Easter!

From Creation, God has revealed his nature as love itself both through Sacred Scripture as well as in the life, passion, death and resurrection of Jesus (his Son).

This past Easter Monday also marked the passing of Pope Francis. As we reflect on his life and impact on us, we note his words of advice to families:

"Resting in prayer is especially important for families. It is in the family that we first learn how to pray. And don't forget when the family prays together, it remains together. This is important. There we come to know God, to grow into men and women of faith, to see ourselves as members of God's greater family, the Church. In the family we learn how to love, to forgive, to be generous and open, not closed and selfish. We learn to move beyond our own needs, to encounter others and share our lives with them. That is why it is so important to pray as a family! That is why families are so important in God's plan for the Church!"

- Pope Francis, January 16, 2015

*"Dear parents, teach your children to pray.
Pray with them."*

- Pope Francis

Please consider praying the family Rosary or the chaplet of Divine Mercy for the repose of the soul of Pope Francis. As the laity, we are also called to pray that the Holy Spirit continue to guide the Church. To make our prayers have even greater efficacy, we should pray in a state of grace - having God's favor - by taking advantage of the sacrament of reconciliation.

Sacred Heart celebrated Pope Francis' life with a beautiful photo displayed prominently this week.

Looking back:

We thank our faith formation students (and their moms!) that joined in filling holy water bottles for the Easter celebration.

Upcoming events:

This week we resume our sacrament season as we continue our preparations for First Eucharist with a Zoom meeting this Tuesday, April 29th at 7 PM.

"Easter is the celebration of life! God created us for life and wants the human family to rise again! In his eyes, every life is precious!" - Pope Francis

The Boy from Milan

You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "gamer saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.

In this Easter season, join Fr. Dave Pivonka in the Wild Goose, a 14-part series on living a life inspired by and with the Holy Spirit.

Divine Mercy with Fr. Michael Gaitley

Renowned speaker and author Fr. Michael Gaitley tells the dramatic history of God's love and mercy as interwoven through the transformative message of St. Faustina, the miraculous appearance of Mary at Fatima, the witness of Maximilian Kolbe, and the world-changing papacy of Pope St. John Paul II.

The Kids' Bulletin

Second Sunday of Easter
Divine Mercy Sunday
April 27th, 2025

What did Jesus and
Thomas say to each other?
Look in the mirror to find out!

Divine Mercy

In today's Gospel we hear about the first time that Jesus came to the Apostles after He rose from the dead. He breathed on them and told them that they had the power to forgive sins. Jesus had just given us the Sacrament of Confession- now a priest could take God's place to hear our sins and tell us that we are forgiven.

Today, the second Sunday of Easter, is also the feast of Divine Mercy. Mercy means being treated well even though we don't deserve it. God is so merciful that He wants to forgive ALL our sins, no matter how bad. All we have to do is be sorry and go to Confession.

God's Divine Mercy is so great that even the worst sinner in the world can be saved from Hell if he asks for it. But even our little sins hurt Jesus, so we need to ask God for mercy too. Don't ever imagine that God can't forgive you when you are sorry- remember, Jesus died on the cross so that you would be able to go to Heaven!
