The untold story of new elected Pope Leo XIV

(Downloaded from the Internet)

In 1975 Robert Prevost was at the top of his game. Chicago math teacher. Devout Catholic.

Accepted into Harvard Law. He had everything a young man could dream of.

But then—he made a decision that no one saw coming. He said no to Harvard. No to a six-figure future. No to fame. No to comfort and yes—to something few dare to choose: A life of complete surrender.

He joined a missionary group and moved to Peru. Not to the cities. Not to the tourist spots. But to the most remote villages—where children die from treatable diseases. And families walk miles just for clean water. There were no roads. No running water. No WIFI. Just mountains. Silence and poverty. But he embraced it like home.

Robert didn't just live among the people. He became one of them. Learned Quechua—the sacred language of the Incas. Carried food on foot for days. Slept on dirt floors with the villagers. Prayed under the stars when he wasn't building shelters. He taught math to barefoot kids under broken rooftops. When he wasn't teaching, he carried the sick on donkeys to get help. When he wasn't healing, he listened—truly listened—to stories no one else cared to hear.

While his friends from back home became lawyers and doctors, he became something else entirely. A shepherd. A brother. A quiet warrior of faith. And slowly—his legend grew. His acts weren't broadcasted. But they echoed through the Andes. Bishops and Priests noticed and eventually—the Vatican noticed.

They called him back to lead his entire Augustinian order. From serving a village to overseeing 2,800 brothers in over 40 countries. Still—he kept his same sandals. Still—he walked with the poor. Still—he rejected luxury. Then came the call that changed everything: Rome wanted him closer.

In 2020 he was appointed Archbishop and assigned to govern other bishops globally. It was rare. But Robert had never chased tradition. He wasn't just fluent in Latin or Canon Law. He was fluent in compassion. In humility. In listening. In presence. The Vatican didn't just see a priest. They saw a leader with soul. On September 30, 2023, Pope Francis made it official: Robert Prevost was named a Cardinal. Just one step below the Pope. And then... in 2025 history was made.

For the first time ever. An American. A former math teacher. A missionary to the forgotten was elevated as the 267th Pope of the Catholic Church. And he didn't forget the people who shaped him. To this day.

Pope Robert still returns to the same villages. Still prays in Quechua. Still sits on dirt floors. Still holds the hands of the elderly in silence because leadership he believes is about presence not position. The world is obsessed with power. But Robert Prevost proves titles mean nothing without service. Knowledge is useless without love. And faith without sacrifice is noise. He turned down the world. And changed it instead.

This Saturday, May 17th, we celebrate First Eucharist for our Sacred Heart Catholic Academy children. May this special day fill our children's hearts with the joy of knowing Jesus and may he always guide the children in their faith journey.

Our Pentecost student group is currently working towards receiving the sacrament of confirmation in June. We look forward to sharing this sacrament on June 8th at 11:30 am with our adult group.

Our confirmation interview schedule is being prepared and will be released shortly to our Grade/Level 7 students.

Zoom calls will be scheduled this month for Grades/Levels 6 & 7 in order to look ahead to the 2025-26 school year and Confirmation Year 1 and Year 2 Prep.

Finally, and most importantly, we wish our Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, a papacy blessed with joy as he works to serve the Church. May our daily prayers support him so that he encounters the peace that only Jesus Christ can give. We thank God for the gift of Pope Leo XIV.

Below are some images from our May 10th First Eucharist Masses. We congratulate all our children and families that joined us on this special day!

Saint Celestine: The Pope Who Quit

This docu-drama investigates the secrecy of this dramatic time in history and reveals a story that involves deadly dealings, apocalyptic maneuverings, and papal intrigue. It uncovers the riveting and mysterious story of Pope St. Celestine V, the pope who retired from the papacy after a very short reign. At the close of the tumultuous Middle Ages, this future monk and pope seemed destined from birth to save the world.

Saint Rita

St. Rita of Cascia is immortalized in this wonderful, deeply moving film. This story is about the brave woman who married her knight, helped him overcome his dark past and convert to faith, happily bore him two children, and later endures immense pain as she loses everything in her life. Her story and love for Christ will inspire you to great holiness!

John 13:31-35

Saint Mary Magdalene de Pazzi May 25

MARY MAGDALENE DE PAZZI RECEIVED MANY VISIONS FROM GOD, AND BY WHAT SHE SAID PEOPLE LEARNED A LOT ABOUT HIM. BUT SHE SUFFERED A LOT TOO. SHE WAS SICK DIFFERENT TIMES, AND HAD VERY HARD TEMPTATIONS, BUT SHE STAYED FAITHFUL TO GOD. SHE DIED FROM A PAINFUL SICKNESS WHEN SHE WAS 41.

The New Commandment

In the Old Testament, before Jesus came, there were many commandments. They told the people how they should live and what they should and shouldn't do. Jesus obeyed the commandments, but He gave His followers a new one, something different than any of the others:

LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

The love that Jesus was talking about is called charity. It means doing what is best for a person. Here are some ways to love others:

Always think kindly of people. Even when you know something bad about someone, try to think nice thoughts about them.

Always speak kindly about people. Saying bad things about others can hurt them.

Always act kindly toward others. Treat everyone in the way that you would want to be treated. Show that you are a follower of Jesus by how you love others!

Answer to Word-Find: If you love one another. Answer to Word-Find: Jesus comes again!

Then I, JOHN, saw a new HEAVEN and a new EARTH. The former heaven and the former earth HAD passed away, and the sea was no MORE. I also saw the holy city, a new JERUSALEM, coming DOWN out of heaven from God, PREPARED as a BRIDE ADORNED for her HUSBAND. I heard a LOUD VOICE from the throne SAYING "BEHOLD, God's DWELLING is with the HUMAN RACE. He will dwell with THEM and they will be his PEOPLE and GOD HIMSELF will ALWAYS be with them as THEIR God. He will WIPE EVERY TEAR from their EYES, and there SHALL be no more DEATH or MOURNING, WAILING or pain, for the old ORDER has passed away."

The One who sat on the THRONE said, "Behold, I MAKE all things new."
